

From the Benjamin Franklin College Dean's Office

Dean's Notes– April 11, 2022

Dear Franklinites,

I am thinking especially of seniors right now, as I know many of you are endeavoring to finish your senior thesis. It's the longest project you've had to do, and you might be questioning your topic, your approach, your major (!). You may feel like you are on the struggle bus, or maybe the struggle bus sped past your stop and you didn't even make it on the damn bus. Meanwhile some of your friends rode that bus all the way to the end of the line. Be happy for them. Their completion doesn't cast aspersions on your progress. They earned the relief, and you will, too. The spring rains give us time for sustained bouts of work. The sky will brighten and you'll soon be able to lie in the grass beneath it and feel unhurried. It's going to be ok.

As for the rest of you, do something nice this week for a senior you know. They'll appreciate it. And make time for a little Pre-registration. Worksheets open on Wednesday. If you'd like to discuss courses, I'll have Dean's Drop-ins on Thursday, 1:00-3:00.

-Dean Hill

Rain

*With thick strokes of ink the sky fills with rain.
Pretending to run for cover but secretly praying for more rain.*

*Over the echo of the water, I hear a voice saying my name.
No one in the city moves under the quick sightless rain.*

*The pages of my notebook soak, then curl. I've written:
"Yogis opened their mouths for hours to drink the rain."*

*The sky is a bowl of dark water, rinsing your face.
The window trembles; liquid glass could shatter into rain.*

*I am a dark bowl, waiting to be filled.
If I open my mouth now, I could drown in the rain.*

*I hurry home as though someone is there waiting for me.
The night collapses into your skin. I am the rain.*

- Kazim Ali

Course Withdrawals and Credit/D/Fail

An online Course Change Notice form is available on the University Registrar's Office website to request course withdrawals. For the Spring 2022 semester, no late fees will be charged for dropping a course after the official deadline.

Note: Professional school courses cannot be changed to Credit/D/Fail. Some professional school courses end before the March deadlines; the deadline to withdraw from these courses is the last day of the course.

If you wish to convert a course offered in the first half of the term to Credit/D/Fail, take the following steps. Once you convert your grade mode to Credit/D/Fail it cannot be reversed.

1. Log into SIS.
2. Select the Course Enrollment tab and click "Yale College Change Course from Letter Grade to Credit/D/Fail."
3. Change the drop-down selection from "YC – Letter Grade" to "Credit/D/Fail."
4. Click "Submit Changes" to save the conversion.
5. A confirmation of the change will be sent to your University email account. If you do not receive the confirmation email, your change was not processed. You can confirm all of your course grading modes by viewing your "Course Schedule Details by Term" in SIS.

Note: SIS will remain open to convert full-term courses to Credit/D/Fail until April 29. Attempts to convert courses offered in the first half of the term to Credit/D/Fail after 5 p.m. on March 9 will not be valid.

The Elizabethan Club

Yale Undergraduate Student Essay Prize

call for submissions!

The Yale University Elizabethan Club awards a prize for the best undergraduate student term paper and/or senior thesis/project on a subject of interest to the Club:

- + Outstanding work on literature, arts, or culture of the Renaissance.
- + Outstanding work on interpretations, adaptations, or criticism relating to literature, arts, and culture of the Renaissance.
- + Outstanding work based on research done in the Elizabethan Club Collection (used at the Beinecke Library).

Work from any department is eligible and nominations can come from faculty, advisors, or the students themselves. The competition is open to all Yale students, regardless of department. They do not need to be members of the Club.

The winner will receive a monetary prize.

In order to be considered for this prize, the following deadline must be met:

By 4 p.m. on Friday, April 22, 2022: Submit an electronic copy of no more than sixty pages of a completed paper or thesis by sending it as an email attachment to the registrar for the Program in Renaissance Studies, Julia DiVincenzo: julia.divincenzo@yale.edu. Please use subject line "Elizabethan Essay Prize, Undergraduate." [Papers received after 4 p.m. that day cannot be considered because of the tight deadlines under which the selection committees operate.]

Any graduating seniors who have not completed their senior essays by the submission deadline, please notify julia.divincenzo@yale.edu for a submission extension.

Please contact julia.divincenzo@yale.edu with questions, or for additional information regarding the prize.

WILLIAMS PRIZE COMPETITION IN EAST ASIAN STUDIES

This is the formal announcement of the Williams Prize Competition in East Asian Studies. The prize is awarded to an undergraduate senior in any department at Yale University for an outstanding paper completed during the current academic year on a Chinese, Japanese, or Korean subject.

Papers will be judged on use of primary sources, quality of writing, and depth and originality of scholarship. It is expected that essays nominated for the Williams Prize will make substantial use of materials in East Asian language(s) in any medium, including transcriptions of interviews. Essays that focus exclusively on Asian American topics normally will not be considered eligible for consideration.

Course papers may be submitted. Please note that you are REQUIRED to have a written endorsement of your submission. This endorsement need not be from the advisor for whom you originally wrote the paper or senior essay, but it must be made by a faculty member of the Council on East Asian Studies. In either case, please allow time for the faculty to submit their written endorsement to the Council on East Asian Studies before the deadline.

PLEASE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING TO nicholas.disantis@yale.edu NO LATER THAN 5:00 PM, Friday, April 29th, 2022:

1. ONE ELECTRONIC COPY OF YOUR PAPER
2. WRITTEN ENDORSEMENT FROM A FACULTY MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL ON EAST ASIAN STUDIES (The endorsement must be sent directly from the faculty member to nicholas.disantis@yale.edu)
3. A SEPARATE PAGE THAT LISTS
  - a. your complete legal name;
  - b. current campus mailing address and telephone/cell number;
  - c. Yale College affiliation;
  - d. UPI number
  - e. Student Identification (SID) number
  - f. other prizes or awards that your paper is being considered for at Yale

Best regards and good luck!

The Council on East Asian Studies

Yale Degree Audit

Yale Degree Audit (YDA) is a tool that tracks your progress toward the bachelor's degree. YDA is located on the Academics tab of Student Information System (SIS). YDA displays the Yale College degree requirements that you have already completed and those that are still pending. A "Look Ahead" feature shows you how future course enrollment might apply toward your degree. Yale Degree Audit does not take the place of face-to-face advising, although you may wish to share your audit with your adviser. Instead, it provides an easy-to-read summary of requirements, allowing you and your adviser to spend more time discussing course selection and academic goals.

Do not rely solely on your degree audit when planning your courses; continue to use Yale's standard systems for schedule planning and employ YDA as an additional tool. More features will be added to YDA in the future, including the ability to track progress toward major requirements.

If you have suggestions, general observations, or questions that are not answered by the FAQs, send them to registrar@yale.edu using the subject line "Degree Audit." If you believe that academic information in your degree audit is incorrect, contact our office.
