

Dear Franklinites,

The Housing Committee meets this week and you will hear from them shortly about rules, dates, and starting your rooming groups. Please reserve Sunday, March 1, 7-9pm for a college-wide open house. Plan to be around if you live here (or want to!). We'll make a bit of a party about it in the dining hall, since it's February and we all need merriment and uplift. Then the idea is to wander through suites with an eye to next year. Put your underwear away.

Note that if you are seeking a special housing accommodation based on medical or religious needs, you must have your documented needs registered with and authorized by Student Accessibility Services or the Chaplain's Office by 3/6. Make your appointments with these offices right away so that your request will be authorized by the deadline. If you received accommodations in the past, do not assume your accommodations will roll over to the next year; students must apply and obtain approval each year. Note that the Dean's Office does not make decisions about special accommodations.

Look to Dean's Reading Group for next week in the Beanjamin, invitation to follow later this week. That's a wrap!

Warmly, Dean Hill

Why do we so dread to think of our species as a species? Can it be that we are afraid of what we may find? That human self-love would suffer too much and that the image of God might prove to be a mask? This could be only partly true, for if we could cease to wear the image of a kind, bearded, interstellar dictator, we might find ourselves true images of his kingdom, our eyes the nebulae, and universes in our cells.

-John Steinbeck, The Log from the Sea of Cortez

CIPE

THE ONGOING CORONAVIRUS SITUATION:

All units at CIPE are closely monitoring the ongoing coronavirus situation and we are hopeful the situation will improve significantly before the summer. However, we understand that many of you may have questions about your summer plans. Please read the following notes carefully:

1. We strongly encourage students to continue with plans for summer abroad. This includes fellowship and internship applications, language and other study.
2. Prepare a back-up plan. It's always a good idea to have a fully-developed Plan B, in a different country abroad or in the U.S. As you consider your backup plans, Yale Summer Session offers Yale credit in 5 weeks, online or in New Haven, and financial assistance is available.
3. Monitor the Travel Policy <https://cipe.yale.edu/travel-resources/travel-policy> and check on the status of your destination country.

Want to earn 2 Yale credits and a QR distributional requirement while building a portfolio of coding projects for graduate school and job interviews? How about connecting with other Yalies who have done exactly that? What about Popeye's chicken sandwiches?

Yale Degree Audit

Yale Degree Audit (YDA) is a tool that tracks your progress toward the bachelor's degree. YDA is located on the Academics tab of Student Information System (SIS). YDA displays the Yale College degree requirements that you have already completed and those that are still pending. A "Look Ahead" feature shows you how future course enrollment might apply toward your degree. Yale Degree Audit does not take the place of face-to-face advising, although you may wish to share your audit with your adviser. Instead, it provides an easy-to-read summary of requirements, allowing you and your adviser to spend more time discussing course selection and academic goals.

Do not rely solely on your degree audit when planning your courses; continue to use Yale's standard systems for schedule planning and employ YDA as an additional tool. More features will be added to YDA in the future, including the ability to track progress toward major requirements.

If you have suggestions, general observations, or questions that are not answered by the FAQs, send them to registrar@yale.edu using the subject line "Degree Audit." If you believe that academic information in your degree audit is incorrect, contact our office.

Well, if that sounds good to you come on down to the Yale x Flatiron School Web Development Bootcamp (CPSC S115) Student Q&A in the CTL. Room 120A from 7:30-8:30pm on Thursday, February 20th.

Interested in becoming a CCE? The Communication and Consent Educators are a diverse, creative group of undergraduates drawn from across campus to foster a more positive social and sexual climate. Through workshops, programs, and conversations, they collaborate within their own communities to build a culture of respect and support. They also serve as a resource for students who have experienced or heard about sexual misconduct, providing a peer avenue to SHARE, the UWC, Title IX, and the Yale Police. The CCEs are paid employees of the YCDO, working 5-10 hours per week, with longer hours during training periods in August and January. There's no need for prior experience in sexual violence prevention. The prime qualification for being a CCE is the desire to make Yale a better place! For more information and to apply, please visit yale.edu/cce.

March 1st to Apply for Center for Language Study's DILS and Fields Programs

The Yale Center for Language Study is now accepting applications for fall semester study for its Fields Program and its Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) Program. The deadline for applying to either program for fall semester study is March 1st at 1:00pm.

The Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) Program gives students the opportunity to study a language that is not currently taught in a Yale classroom.

The Fields Program gives students the opportunity to pursue advanced-level language study within the context of their academic area of focus (generally in areas other literature if the language is taught at Yale, since advanced coursework in literature would likely be available).

Both are non-credit programs, open to all registered Yale students (undergraduate, graduate and professional). In each program, students work with a Language Partner—a native speaker of the target language (not a formal instructor)—in two 1-hour sessions for 12 weeks. The sessions aim to develop linguistic and cultural competence through active conversation and practice of what you are studying independently. With a limited number of slots available, a selection committee reviews all applications for their merit and appropriateness, and notifies students of its decisions within four to six weeks after the application deadline. Details on each program and how to apply can be found at these links:

Directed Independent Language Study (DILS):

<https://cls.yale.edu/dils>

Fields Program:

<https://cls.yale.edu/fields>

Please note that all applications must be received by the application deadline (this includes applications for continued study from current DILS or Fields students).
