*Off-cycle students (i.e. those completing your 3rd, 5th, or 7th term this spring), you must meet the minimum credit requirements for promotion to the following term.

Please keep the following rules in mind:

- No courses taken on a Credit/D/Fail basis may be used to fulfill the distributional requirements.

- If you are short anywhere between 1 to 2.5 graduation credits at the end of the spring term, you MUST make up these credits up over the summer or be withdrawn from Yale College for academic reasons. (Any student more than 2.5 credit short of good standing at the end of the academic year will be withdrawn from Yale for academic reasons; this credit deficiency cannot be repaired through summer study.)

- If you have not completed any necessary distribution requirements or skills required for promotion by the end of term, you MUST earn those distribution requirements over the summer, or you will be withdrawn from Yale College for academic reasons.

A note about courses requiring Instructor Permission:

Some courses require instructor permission, which you will have to request through YCS. In YCS an instructor will approve or deny your request to enroll in the course. Remember, once an instructor approved your request, you must then accept the spot in the class, otherwise you are not enrolled!

A note about courses with Labs and Discussion Sections:

If you have enrolled in a lab or discussion section via preference selection, make sure to add the lecture for the course in Yale Course Search as well. Labs and Discussion sections will be identified by letters; Lectures will be identified by the number 01.

If you have enrolled in a Lecture that requires a section (identified in YCS via the code HTBA underneath the meeting time) and which does not use Preference Selection, make sure to enroll in a discussion section as well.

You are not enrolled in the course until you have added both the lecture and the discussion section.
Enrolling in a Professional School Course

To enroll in one of the Yale professional schools, in addition to adding the course to your Registration worksheet in Yale Course Search, you will need to submit a separate request, which is available online at the Registrar’s Forms & Petitions site. Enrollment in such courses will not be recorded by the Registrar’s Office in the absence of this form. The form is used by the Registrar’s Office to determine the course credits you will earn by successfully completing the course proposed. Some courses earn 1 course credit in Yale College, some earn 0.5 course credits, and some earn 0 course credits. Plan accordingly. To view professional school courses that have been previously approved by the Registrar, and the credits they earn in Yale College, see https://registrar.yale.edu/students/course-selection/enrolling-graduate-and-professional-school-courses-credit. If a course does not appear on the list above, it is possible it has never been reviewed by the Yale College Registrar. Submit your blue form and the course syllabus as soon as possible to determine if the course will give Yale College credit.

Courses at a professional school cannot be taken on the Cr/D/Fail option of Yale College, unless these courses are only offered as Pass/Fail in their respective schools. Other rules about taking courses in the professional schools can be found here. If the course earns no Yale College credit, it will not appear on your transcript.

You may not enroll in a graduate or professional school course designated as an independent study, nor may you apply credit earned in a graduate or professional school course to any of the Yale College distributional requirements.

Enrollment in graduate courses in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences do not require a blue form. If undergraduates are eligible to enroll in a GSAS course, you may add the course via Yale Course Search in the usual way. GSAS courses do not count towards the 4-credit maximum of professional school courses which can be offered to the 36 credits required for the Yale degree. Students cannot enroll in graduate school courses in the Cr/D/F mode.

Yale Degree Audit is a web-based tool that calculates and displays how an individual student's courses may count toward the requirements for the bachelor's degree. The degree audit enables students to monitor their own progress toward the completion of degree requirements. It also helps students, and their advisers discuss course selection for current and future terms more meaningfully by clarifying what requirements the student still needs to complete. Currently, major requirements are not included in the audit. Log into Yale Hub to pull up your audit.

Unlike a transcript, your degree audit is an unofficial document provided for your information and convenience. The audit serves as a tool to provide you with helpful and timely information when you are planning your course schedule, discussing your schedule with your adviser, and reviewing your progress toward completing the requirements for the bachelor's degree. Your degree audit is not an official academic transcript.

Yale Degree Audit will help you:

• Determine what requirements you need to fulfill in order to complete your bachelor's degree.
• View a list of all courses in which you have enrolled and the distributional designations each course carries.
• View individual course grades and cumulative grade-point average (GPA).
