

Dear Franklinites,

Welcome back to Ben Frank and the classroom. I hope you nested and ate something warm. I hiked Bear Mountain with Ada and her 6th grade class, and even though she'd warned me not to talk to her or hike near her, we hung together a good part of the chilly day. It's really fall now, a peculiar light emanates from the sky and even the leaves themselves, it seems. It's a quality of light my New England soul longed for in the years I was away from it. Really special part of this corner of the world. Take a moment to look up in the clear sky this week.

But of course our routine forces us to hunker in and down, to screens and tests, and even slippery leaves the trees have shed. Use these next days to flow from task to task, applying the energy you've conserved to produce really strong work.

Is not this a true autumn day? Just the still melancholy that I love - that makes life and nature harmonise. The birds are consulting about their migrations, the trees are putting on the hectic or the pallid hues of decay, and begin to strew the ground, that one's very footsteps may not disturb the repose of earth and air, while they give us a scent that is a perfect anodyne to the restless spirit. Delicious autumn! My very soul is wedded to it, and if I were a bird I would fly about the earth seeking the successive autumns.

Request an OCS Workshop-All student organizations in Yale College, GSAS, or whose members include postdocs are welcome to request a workshop (this includes the cultural centers, athletic teams, Greek-letter organizations, performance, political, cultural, and pre-professional groups, faculty and staff).

Check out micro-internships through Parker Dewey-Micro-internships allow you to work on paid, short-term, professional projects offered by employers around the country that can be completed remotely. These Micro-internships can help you develop professional skills, connect with employers across a variety of industries, and explore career paths. International students must receive work authorization to complete a project through Parker Dewey; see OISS.

New for Sophomores:

You may be thinking, now what? What will you do this summer, or after you graduate? Which careers make sense for you? If you have these questions, and you are unsure how to approach them, Designing Your Career @ Yale is for you. Design thinking can help you create a life that is both meaningful and fulfilling. Adapting Stanford University's approach of applying Design Thinking principles to life and career decision-making, OCS is offering 1/2-day workshops for sophomores seeking to explore possible career futures, take proactive steps to test career interests, and become a part of a growing community of life designers. Enormous thanks to the Hastings Foundation for making this program possible for Yale sophomores. Each program is held at the Study Hotel and all materials and food will be provided! Fall 2019 Program Dates (just register for one): November 1 and December 6 (times & details in Yale Career Link)

Yale School of Management - Silver Scholars Program

The Silver Scholars Program at the Yale School of Management allows students to earn a Yale MBA degree within three years, directly after graduation, spring-boarding them toward their career goals and leadership positions. The program is designed for exceptional students with strong leadership potential. These students enroll in our full-time MBA program where they make up about 5% of the student body. Rather than the traditional summer MBA internship, Silver Scholars complete a year-long internship, extending their experience to three years. All Yale College students receive a 50% tuition discount and an application fee waiver.

The admissions committee seeks applicants with a combination of intelligence, maturity, and curiosity who aim to be future leaders in their field of interest. Candidates from all majors are welcome to apply; we enjoy the diversity of interests and backgrounds that Silver Scholars bring to the broader MBA class at Yale SOM.

If you would like to speak with an admissions representative, please email maria.derlipanska@yale.edu to schedule an appointment.

Yale Degree Audit

Yale Degree Audit (YDA) is a tool that tracks your progress toward the bachelor's degree.

YDA is located on the Academics tab of Student Information System (SIS). YDA displays the Yale College degree requirements that you have already completed and those that are still pending. A "Look Ahead" feature shows you how future course enrollment might apply toward your degree. Yale Degree Audit does not take the place of face-to-face advising, although you may wish to share your audit with your adviser. Instead, it provides an easy-to-read summary of requirements, allowing you and your adviser to spend more time discussing course selection and academic goals.

Do not rely solely on your degree audit when planning your courses; continue to use Yale's standard systems for schedule planning and employ YDA as an additional tool. More features will be added to YDA in the future, including the ability to track progress toward major requirements.

If you have suggestions, general observations, or questions that are not answered by the FAQs, send them to registrar@yale.edu using the subject line "Degree Audit." If you believe that academic information in your degree audit is incorrect, contact our office.
