

From the Benjamin Franklin College Dean's Office

Dean's Notes– September 21, 2020

Dear Franklinites,

Today marked my first "Lunch with the Dean" – spent a delightful 45 minutes in the sun with Charnice, Carmelita and Sydney. The bar is now high, people. They are some classy Franklinites. Music, dance, medicine, engineering. It bears noting that even if you can't fully realize your extracurricular potential in this semester, it's important to ask each other what you like to do, and find clubs and organizations that carry out those things with excellence. Plant seedlings for next year and you will find, I predict, that your conversations with each other now will be generative. I look forward to lots more conversations with many of you in the days and weeks ahead.

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself. Something to repair tears in your community. Something to make life a little better for people less fortunate than you. That's what I think a meaningful life is – living not for oneself but for one's community.

—Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg

But when fall comes, kicking summer out on its treacherous ass as it always does one day sometime after the midpoint of September, it stays awhile like an old friend that you have missed. It settles in the way an old friend will settle into your favorite chair and take out his pipe and light it and then fill the afternoon with stories of places he has been and things he has done since last he saw you.

— Stephen King, Salem's Lot

Warmly,

Dean Hill

Important Academic Deadlines

- Monday, September 21 by 5:00 p.m. – withdraw from a course offered in the first half of the term without a W appearing on your transcript
- Tuesday, October 13 by 5:00 p.m. – withdraw from a course offered in the first half of the term
- Tuesday, October 13 by 5:00 p.m. – deadline to change the grade mode to Credit/D/Fail for a Yale College course offered in the first half of the term

If you wish to convert a Yale College course offered in the first half of the term to Credit/D/Fail, take the following steps. Once you convert your grade mode to Credit/D/Fail it cannot be reversed. Log into SIS.

1. Select the Course Enrollment tab and click “Yale College Change Course from Letter Grade to Credit/D/Fail.”
2. Change the drop-down selection from “YC – Letter Grade” to “Credit/D/Fail.”
3. Click "Submit Changes" to save the conversion.
4. A confirmation of the change will be sent to your University email account. If you do not receive the confirmation email, your change was not processed. You can confirm all of your course grading modes by viewing your “Course Schedule Details by Term” in SIS.

Note: SIS will remain open to convert full-term Yale College courses to Credit/D/Fail until December 4. Attempts to convert courses offered in the first half of the term to Credit/D/Fail after 5 p.m. on October 13 will not be valid.

Yale Degree Audit

Yale Degree Audit (YDA) is a tool that tracks your progress toward the bachelor’s degree. YDA is located on the Academics tab of Student Information System (SIS). YDA displays the Yale College degree requirements that you have already completed and those that are still pending. A “Look Ahead” feature shows you how future course enrollment might apply toward your degree. Yale Degree Audit does not take the place of face-to-face advising, although you may wish to share your audit with your adviser. Instead, it provides an easy-to-read summary of requirements, allowing you and your adviser to spend more time discussing course selection and academic goals.

Do not rely solely on your degree audit when planning your courses; continue to use Yale’s standard systems for schedule planning and employ YDA as an additional tool. More features will be added to YDA in the future, including the ability to track progress toward major requirements.

If you have suggestions, general observations, or questions that are not answered by the FAQs, send them to registrar@yale.edu using the subject line “Degree Audit.” If you believe that academic information in your degree audit is incorrect, contact our office.

THE ONGOING COVID-19 (CORONAVIRUS) SITUATION

Sponsored outbound international travel from the United States, including study abroad and fellowships, is suspended for Yale College students for the duration of the fall 2020 term. This decision is final for the fall term and will not change even if circumstances should change in the destination country.

Deadline: October 1st to Apply for Center for Language Study's DILS and Fields Programs

The Yale Center for Language Study is now accepting applications for fall semester study for its Fields Program and its Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) Program. The deadline for applying to either program for Spring semester study is October 1st at 1:00pm.

The Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) Program gives students the opportunity to study a language that is not currently taught in a Yale classroom.

The Fields Program gives students the opportunity to pursue advanced-level language study within the context of their academic area of focus (generally in areas other literature if the language is taught at Yale, since advanced coursework in literature would likely be available).

Both are non-credit programs, open to all enrolled Yale students (undergraduate, graduate and professional). In each program, students work with a Language Partner—a native speaker of the target language (not a formal instructor)—in two 1-hour sessions for 12 weeks. The sessions aim to develop linguistic and cultural competence through active conversation and practice of what you are studying independently. With a limited number of slots available, a selection committee reviews all applications for their merit and appropriateness, and notifies students of its decisions within four to six weeks after the application deadline.

Details on each program and how to apply can be found at these links:

Directed Independent Language Study (DILS):

<https://cls.yale.edu/dils>

Fields Program:

<https://cls.yale.edu/fields>

Please note that all applications must be received by the application deadline (this includes applications for continued study from current DILS or Fields students).
