Dear Franklinites,

Welcome back to the neighborhood, if you ventured out into the world. And for those of you who hunkered down to sleep and work, I hope you made your Monday morning classes. Snap to action.

Extended Dean’s drop-in hours this week so you can weigh your final decisions on course enrollment ahead of Friday’s drop deadline (without a W):
Thursday 1-4 PM, with popcorn!

Sophomores: Sign up for sophomore fireside chats next week, featuring Sugar cupcakes, Hopewell Rogers (I think she’s doing karaoke), and your Head and Dean. Look forward to some cozy time to chat. Sign up with your friends, no restrictions.

Warmly,
Dean Hill

For the Chipmunk in My Yard

_I think he knows I’m alive, having come down_
The three steps of the back porch
And given me a good once over. All afternoon
He’s been moving back and forth,
Gathering odd bits of walnut shells and twigs,
While all about him the great fields tumble
To the blades of the thresher. He’s lucky
To be where he is, wild with all that happens.
He’s lucky he’s not one of the shadows
Living in the blond heart of the wheat.
This autumn when trees bolt, dark with the fires
Of starlight, he’ll curl among their roots,
Wanting nothing but the slow burn of matter
On which he fastens like a small, brown flame.

-Robert Gibb

We are hoping to hear how your year is going, about your hopes and plans and concerns for the future, and talk about what we can do in the College to make the community stronger. Also, it'll be a chance to connect with classmates who you might not ordinarily encounter. The chats will take place in the Head's House and will be attended by Head Charles, Dean Hill, and our intrepid SoCo Hopewell Rogers. Refreshments will be provided.

There will be four meetings - two on Monday October 29 (8pm and 9:30pm) and two on Tuesday October 30 (8:30pm and 10pm). So please sign up Here.

First-Generation/Low-Income Community Initiative
What does it mean to be the first in your family to attend college—at Yale of all places? What experiences come with growing up in a low-income household? What role do all of these experiences play as we endeavor our individual careers at Yale and afterwards?

Be part of a developing and growing community of students from first-generation and/or low-income (FGLI) backgrounds through the First-Generation Low-Income Community Initiative! Together, we talk about these questions and more to make sense out of our collective identity, all while developing friendships across socially and culturally diverse backgrounds. Whether through academic guidance, mentorship, or personal guidance, our community is eager to welcome and support you.
The Initiative consists of

- Study Spaces Monday (6 – 10 PM) and Thursday (7 – 10 PM) evenings with peer Student Ambassadors
- Weekly discussions on what it means to be first-gen and/or low-income
- Weekly academic workshops (through the Academic Strategies Program)
- Weekly newsletter (featuring Student Shout-outs and upcoming FGLI events)
- Office hours with Student Ambassadors
- Collaborative events with other student organizations

Have an idea? Want to express a need? Let us know!

Contact jose.lopez@yale.edu for more information, and learn more at https://fgli.yalecollege.yale.edu

This initiative is a part of the Woodbridge Fellowship, in collaboration with the Yale College Dean’s Office and the Center for Teaching and Learning.

This week’s FGLI Community Initiative Workshop: Fresh Start: Midterm Edition
Want to refresh your approaches to your academic work? Our mentors will lead you through a series of activities to help you identify your current strengths and develop new strategies for the second half of the semester.

Thursday, October 25, 6:00 PM CTL M104A

Academic Strategies 1-1 Peer Mentoring
Want individualized advice on approaches to your academic work? Sign up for a meeting with a peer Academic Strategies Mentor by clicking here, or contact academicstrategies@yale.edu.

Writing Center
https://ctl.yale.edu/tutoring/undergraduate-writing-tutoring

Turnitin Software Access (Pilot):
Turnitin is a tool to help faculty and students develop and evaluate written scholarship. It estimates the originality of written work so students can properly reference source material. The tool generates a “similarity report” by comparing an uploaded paper to a database of web pages, articles, books, and other uploaded files. When similarities exist, the tool highlights sections of the uploaded paper and displays the original source. The report provides an opportunity for constructive conversations about properly referencing sources.
Yale College students who wish to use Turnitin can make an appointment with a trained writing consultant in the Center. Yale College students should use the Writing Center’s appointment system. The software will not be available during drop-in hours.

Science & QR Tutoring
Many introductory courses have course-based peer tutors—consult your syllabus or look up your course to see if they are available. Don’t have a course-based peer tutor? Residential College Science and QR tutors are available for drop-in appointments throughout the week. Students who have tried Course-Based Peer Tutors and visited the Residential College Math/Science tutors, but still need more help, can request scheduled tutoring in small groups or one-on-one.

WHAT?
Harbor Scholars seeks to address the unique challenges faced by those who do not benefit from the personal and financial support that many receive from family, both at Yale and in the New Haven community. This identity includes but is not limited to those who have been in the foster care system, those who have gone forth with emancipation proceedings, or those who lack parental support for other reasons.

INTERNAL SUPPORT
In order to ensure the continued success of these individuals at the collegiate level, the program will provide academic mentorship, financial assistance, and social support to Yale students of this background throughout their undergraduate career.

HELP THE COMMUNITY
Those who would like to serve as Affiliate Members in supporting the program and partaking in community involvement initiatives are also welcome and ENCOURAGED TO JOIN. The program will organize members to provide mentorship and college counseling services to New Haven Area high school students in out-of-home care later in the term and throughout the Spring so as to pass down the skills and insights that were integral to their own success and reduce the factors that may hinder public high school students of this identity from realizing their full potential.

If you are a Yale student who fits this identity
OR
someone who does not identify with this background but wishes to support New Haven Area youth who do, feel free to contact:

Tim Ryan, HC ’20
President of Harbor Scholars
timothy.ryan@yale.edu

*NOTE: Those interested in serving on the Board—whether you identify with this background or not—may indicate such interest in an email. We are currently seeking Recruitment Coordinators, Financial Directors, and Youth Interested in becoming an East Asian Languages and Literatures or East Asian Studies Major? Come for an informal get-together with the DUS for East Asian Languages and Literatures and the DUS for East Asian Studies!
