

Dear Franklinites,

This is the week for mugs of warming liquids, buckling down to do good work, and turning up to vote. Look for a separate note from me on our epic study event – Long Night Against Procrastination and sign up quickly. Marathon study event here in the college with tons of snacks and cute video breaks. Also check your email for a pop-up Dean's study break with Chick-fil-A. And I won't order the wraps this time, I've got it.

(First one to identify the two women in the photo gets a free sweatshirt.)

Always take sides. Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim. Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented.

-Elie Wiesel, Nobel Laureate, professor, Holocaust survivor

If someone says, "Democracy is a sham, those people don't speak for me... the system's rigged," you say, "Vote." Someone says, "I was making a statement by not voting," and then you say, "Well I can't hear it."
