

Dear Franklinites,

Welcome back to the northern neighborhood! I hope you took time to lounge and laugh and argue and feed yourselves. I saw a wonderful play in New York called "The Ferryman," which takes place in a rural farmhouse in Northern Ireland in 1980 against the backdrop of the hunger strikes of IRA prisoners. Some politics and history but also magic realism and lots of family drama. When theater is good there is nothing better.

Courage these last two weeks of classes. We are here to sustain you. Drop in this week!

Eating Together

In the steamer is the trout seasoned with slivers of ginger,

two sprigs of green onion, and sesame oil.

We shall eat it with rice for lunch, brothers, sister, my mother who will taste the sweetest meat of the head, holding it between her fingers deftly, the way my father did weeks ago. Then he lay down to sleep like a snow-covered road

winding through pines older than him, without any travelers, and lonely for no one.

HUMS411: Life Worth Living Course Application

HUMS411: Life Worth Living

“What does it mean for a life to go well? What would it look like for a life to be lived well? In short, what shape would a life worth living take? We will explore these questions through engagement with the lives and visions of founding figures from six diverse traditions of imagining a good life: the Buddha, the Torah and the Hebrew prophetic and wisdom writers, Jesus of Nazareth, Muhammad, John Stuart Mill, and Friedrich Nietzsche. The course will also feature visits from contemporary individuals who understand their lives to be shaped by the traditions in question.”

YALE SUMMER SESSION

Become a web developer this summer. Seriously.

Yale Summer Session is partnering with the Flatiron School to launch a Web Development Bootcamp this summer. The Yale x Flatiron School Web Development Bootcamp is offering CPSCS115 "Introduction to Full-Stack Web Development," which will give you a deep dive into the intellectual enterprises of computer science and teach you to think, and build, like a software engineer. Best of all: You don't need any prior computer science experience to take the course. All you need is the passion to learn!

Why attend Yale x Flatiron School?

- Learn Ruby and JavaScript--and apply your knowledge to other software languages
- Gain experience in front-end and back-end programming
- Discover how your unique perspective can contribute to a web development team
- Apply your knowledge in other courses, a job, or in graduate school
- Earn 2 Yale College credits and QR (pending faculty approval)
